Internship Contract

Three-party agreement between school, company and student

Parties

School	Internium Vocational School
Company	Acme Mentors GmbH
Student	Noah Keller, class 12A

Placement

Start	15 Sep 2026
End	30 Jun 2027
Hours / week	32

During the placement the student takes part in the daily work of the host company under the guidance of a business mentor. The school's mentor teacher follows progress through regular reports and visits. Both parties agree to respect working hours, safety rules and the confidentiality of company information.

During the placement the student takes part in the daily work of the host company under the guidance of a business mentor. The school's mentor teacher follows progress through regular reports and visits. Both parties agree to respect working hours, safety rules and the confidentiality of company information.

During the placement the student takes part in the daily work of the host company under the guidance of a business mentor. The school's mentor teacher follows progress through regular reports and visits. Both parties agree to respect working hours, safety rules and the confidentiality of company information.

Article 2

During the placement the student takes part in the daily work of the host company under the guidance of a business mentor. The school's mentor teacher follows progress through regular reports and visits. Both parties agree to respect working hours, safety rules and the confidentiality of company information.

During the placement the student takes part in the daily work of the host company under the guidance of a business mentor. The school's mentor teacher follows progress through regular reports and visits. Both parties agree to respect working hours, safety rules and the confidentiality of company information.

During the placement the student takes part in the daily work of the host company under the guidance of a business mentor. The school's mentor teacher follows progress through regular reports and visits. Both parties agree to respect working hours, safety rules and the confidentiality of company information.

Article 3

During the placement the student takes part in the daily work of the host company under the guidance of a business mentor. The school's mentor teacher follows progress through regular reports and visits. Both parties agree to respect working hours, safety rules and the confidentiality of company information.

During the placement the student takes part in the daily work of the host company under the guidance of a business mentor. The school's mentor teacher follows progress through regular reports and visits. Both parties agree to respect working hours, safety rules and the confidentiality of company information.

During the placement the student takes part in the daily work of the host company under the guidance of a business mentor. The school's mentor teacher follows progress through regular reports and visits. Both parties agree to respect working hours, safety rules and the confidentiality of company information.

_____ _____

Student Company